

Prevention Education Objectives

Target Groups	Outcome Objectives
Initial Entry Personnel	*Learn options and select risk-reducing behaviors *Use condoms consistently and correctly if sexually active and not in long-term monogamous relationship *Understand physical, social, career, and financial impacts of HIV, STD, pregnancy
Periodic	*Service members will understand the benefits of responsible sexual decision making and the various adverse physical, social, career, and financial impacts of HIV infection, STD, and pregnancy *Service members will learn how to communicate safer sexual choices to their partners
High Risk <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Drug/Alc</li> <li>➤ STD Clinics</li> <li>➤ Deployment</li> </ul>	*Incorporate "Sexual Responsibility Training" into education tracks of drug/alcohol programs *Counsel all STD patients IAW CDC Project Respect and US Preventive Task Force (USPSTF) recommendations *Incorporate STD exposure avoidance and contraception to all personnel as part of pre-deployment, liberty, and re-deployment briefings
Clinical <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Women's Health</li> <li>➤ Clinical Preventive Services</li> </ul>	*Providers will assess every patient for STD/HIV/pregnancy risk and provide patient-centered counseling during clinical encounters *Patients will understand the adverse medical consequences of STDs and HIV and risk of exposure for common STDs and HIV *Patients will understand the efficacy, side effects, and requirements of various risk-reducing methods and select preventive measures for themselves
Leadership <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Officer</li> <li>➤ Enlisted</li> </ul>	*Subject matter experts (SMEs) will provide epidemiologic overviews of incidence and trends of STDs, HIV, and pregnancy in the military at leadership schools and to individual commanders upon request *SMEs will also orient leadership to Service policies and procedures for HIV testing and education and for management of HIV positive service members